

Aloma L. Myers Elected an Assistant Treasurer of The Washington Post Company

December 3, 2007

 Printable Version

WASHINGTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 3, 2007--The Washington Post Company (NYSE:WPO) has announced that Aloma L. Myers has been elected an Assistant Treasurer.

Myers joined The Washington Post Company as cash manager in 2004 and is responsible for oversight and administration of all cash management activities and banking relationships. She has over 15 years of treasury management experience and is a Certified Treasury Professional (CTP). Myers graduated magna cum laude with a BA in business administration from Mary Baldwin College.

CONTACT: Washington Post Company
Rima Calderon, 202-334-6617

SOURCE: Washington Post Company